OFFICE OF THE GOVERNOR
PROCLAMATION
IN OBSERVANCE OF

Whereas, throughout the history of our nation and state, people have turned to prayer for guidance, comfort, and hope; and

Whereas, the National Day of Prayer is a time-honored tradition encouraging people of all faiths to unite in prayer and reflection; and

Whereas, prayer offers an opportunity for all citizens to pause in quiet reverence, to seek wisdom and understanding, and to express gratitude for the blessings of life, liberty, and community; and

Whereas, the National Day of Prayer reminds us of the shared values that bind us together – compassion, humility, service, and love and respect for our neighbors.

Now, Therefore, I, Matthew Meyer, Governor, do hereby declare May 7, 2026, as NATIONAL DAY OF PRAYER

in the State of Delaware, and urge all Delawareans to take a moment to reflect, give thanks, and lift up their voices in prayer according to their own faith traditions.
