

STATE OF INDIANA
EXECUTIVE DEPARTMENT
INDIANAPOLIS

Executive Order

PROCLAMATION

TO ALL TO WHOM THESE PRESENTS MAY COME, GREETINGS:

- WHEREAS, throughout the 250 years of history in America we have poured out prayers to the God of all people; in times of crisis and celebration, in prosperity and need, in times of war and peace we have poured out praise to God for all He is, thanks to God for all He has done, confession and pleas for forgiveness when we have parted from His Word and will, and poured out intercession asking for His heart and hand to move for the sake of our neighbors and nation, and our history is led with His grace, goodness, and abundant answers to those prayers; and
- WHEREAS, from the prayer of our Continental Congress in 1774, to the opening of every session of the House of Representatives and Senate, and throughout hearts and homes across America, the practice of prayer continues to seek God for guidance, wisdom, power, protection, and provision that has preserved hope and united us as one nation under God; and
- WHEREAS, the National Day of Prayer is a Public Law established in the United States Congress in 1952 approved by a Joint Resolution and amended by Congress and President Reagan with Public Law 100-307 in 1988.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Mike Braun, Governor of the State of Indiana, do hereby proclaim the day of May 7, 2026, as in the State of Indiana, and invite all citizens to duly note this occasion.

NATIONAL DAY OF PRAYER

In Testimony Whereof, I hereto set my hand and cause to be affixed the Great Seal of State. Done at the City of Indianapolis, this 15th day of April the year of our Lord 2026 and of the Independence of the United States 249.

BY THE GOVERNOR:

Mike Braun
